From the Board

Susan Bennett, NPNA President, 350-3848

The 4th of July Bike Parade and Social was attended by many neighbors. The laughter and smiles of the children brought joy to everyone. The NPNA Board wishes to thank Eddie Mireles for arranging the visit of the crew and fire truck for the Albuquerque Fire Department that led the bike parade around the park. The Board also thanks Dr. Rock and the Riverside Jass Trio for the swinging Dixieland music. The Board once again is grateful to Carol Renfro for the supplies for the games, to Jesse Young, the leader of the games, and Juanita Broudy-Stern and her friends for their face painting magic. More neighbors are discovering the Dinner in the Park" program on Wednesday nights from 5:00-8:00 pm. Come and join the fun. Don't forget your lawn chairs. NPNA yard Sale is on September 30th. Please call Susan at 350-3848 to sign-up.

There was no board meeting this month. I have gotten several calls about the APD Chief's Overtime Program and I thank everyone for their interest. A few neighbors have already contributed to a fund for this program. This will be a major topic at the August 9th board meeting. Question and comments should be directed to Susan at 350-3848.

The picture is an aerial view of Netherwood Park in 1959. You can see Indian School Road and the UNM North Golf Course. Do you see your house? Do you have any memories of this time? I'm always looking for stories of our neighborhood's past.
