Crime Report

On Saturday, Jan. 29 by Princeton and Cutler a car was broken into between 5:30 and 10:45 PM. A car window was broken and a purse stolen, police were called.

About Feb. 7 at 1:30AM a neighbor on Miracerros reported someone banging on their front door for a long time. The resident was alone and didn't want to answer the door. A similar incident had happened around Thanksgiving. Police were called.

On Monday Feb 21 at 3:30AM close to 2600 Cutler residents were awakened by noise and discovered a stranger in the back yard. Police were called and 15 minutes later they arrived and told the family to stay inside. Police reported that a side gate and back gate were open, two patio chairs were missing and pieces of a marble chess set were broken and on the lawn. At 8AM police recovered the chairs. They were found in the flood control drainage area behind the house.
