There is now one vacancy on the board. Members serve a three-year term. Please call Susan Bennett If you would like to join the NPNA Board.

The NPNA Board met on May 10th. The Board was pleased to hear that the "Dinner in the Park" program on Wednesday nights has been a big hit with neighbors. The food trucks have offered an array of delicious food at a reasonable cost. Classes in Zumba and Yoga were held on a previous Wednesday night and may be scheduled in the future. The newly formed Parks Activities Committee will meet soon to discuss plans for more family-friendly activities in Netherwood Park. Such activities will be announced in the NPNA newsletter, on the NPNA website, and on NextDoor Netherwood Park social media website.

Susan Bennett is investigating the APD Chief's Overtime program. Under this program, the NPNA Board would hire off-duty APD officers to patrol our neighborhood streets several hours each month. More details on this program will be found in the June NPNA newsletter.

Ask the NPNA Board

Is Netherwood Park available for large events such as family reunions and weddings?

The NPNA Board suggests that you call 311 and ask for the Parks and Recreation Department. You may be asked to fill out a "Park Use Agreement Form" and follow their regulations.
