Netherwood Park Yesterdays

Edwin Netherwood was born near Albany, New York, in January, 1945. His family moved to Wisconsin and he served in Company 50 of the Wisconsin Infantry in 1864 during the Civil War. He married Abbey Clark in 1873 and moved to Holyoke, Massachusetts. They had two daughters, Marietta and Emma. Mr. Netherwood worked as a carpenter and home builder. By the 1890's he had a small real estate business. The unexpected death of Emma in 1894 may have led to the breakup of his marriage in 1899. He set out for Cripple Creek, Colorado and then went on to Denver where one of his sisters was a schoolteacher. He worked in a real estate company in the Park Hill Section of Denver. There is no record of how he met Ada Cutler, who was teaching at Whittier Elementary School. They were married on November 9, 1900 in Denver. They moved to Albuquerque in 1907 with the dream of turning Ada's land holdings into Netherwood Park. Their graves are in Fairview Cemetery on Yale S.E.

Share your story of the history of our area, call John Vittal, at 266-0882.
